Sub: Allowances - special pay - unhealthy localities payment to the sub assistant surgeon, Hanur - Your D.Dis.No. 923 D.B.34 dated 20-12-1934.

I am surprised to find that in spite of my repeated recommendation and honest expression of facts the Board was not inclined to consider the question of sanctioning the special pay to the L.F.sub assistant surgeon, Hanur favourably when my recommendation was made in accordance with the rules. I have given strong and convincing reasons in this office R.O.C.No. 379/34 dated 28-8-1934. The L.F.sub assistant surgeons, Talavadi Cowdhalli and odayarpalayam are all getting the special pay, Sub Assistant Surgeon, Talavadi at Rs.20 per mensem, Sub Asst. surgeon, Cowdhalli at 15 per cent of his pay and the Sub Asst. surgeon, Odayarpalayam at 20 per cent of his pay and the Government officials at Hanur viz., the Sub Registrar, Excise Sub Inspector etc. are all getting the special pay in accordance with the scale prescribed in the Manual of special pay and allowances. I regret I am unable to understand the circumstances under which the sub assistant surgeon, Hanur alone should be deprived of the special pay which others enjoy. This was explained to you at the time of the conference held in my office on 9-1-1935 and you said that you were not aware of the resolution No.943 dated 19-12-1934 rejecting the special pay a second time and promised that you would reconsider the matter. I therefore request you to kindly reconsider and sanction the special pay recommended to the sub assistant surgeon, Hanur.
